Dear Valued MAC Valves Customer,

We are writing to inform you that Air Hydro Power has made the decision to withdraw from distributing MAC valves in your area. In response, we are pleased to announce that Neff Automation will now be representing MAC Valves, Inc. as the authorized distributor in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Neff Automation, headquartered in Fort Wayne Indiana is an experienced industrial automation supplier and one of our largest global distributors. Neff has been in business since 1926, is into their fourth generation of ownership, and has been a MAC distributor since 1952 (70 years). Neff Automation has 10 locations, 6 value-add centers and covers 15 states: Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Delaware, New Jersey and Kentucky. Neff has the expertise and inventory to service all of your MAC valve requirements. As with their other business units, Neff will have a local footprint in Kentucky with a full service and stocking location to facilitate the needs of the marketplace. Further information regarding Neff Automation and the services they provide visit: www.neffautomation.com

If I can answer any questions, please email me at joseph.richardson@macvalves.com or call me at (248) 624-7700 ext. 318. Otherwise, feel free to contact your new distributor, Neff Automation at (502) 671-4010 or customerservice-KY@neffautomation.com

Thank you for your business and we look forward servicing your needs.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Richardson
Vice President of Sales
MAC Valves, Inc.
